

Name	Supervisor / Reports To	Division/Department
	Lead Mason	Masonry
Job Title	Shift	Date Written
Masonry Apprentice	Day
General Description
As an apprentice you will work under the supervision of a professional mason until all the skills are honed in which may take 3-4 years depending on individuals desire to learn. During your masonry apprenticeship, you will receive on-the-job training in masonry related trade skills while working alongside masonry professionals on bricklaying, cement, and stone installations. Your responsibilities vary with the project, but typically involves learning to use equipment associated with the mason trade, training in the techniques used to lay stone, brick, CMU, or construct other structures and installations.
Essential Duties
<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Mixes mortar, plaster, and grout, manually or using machines, according to standard formulas.•Erects scaffolding or other installation structures and safety barriers•Cuts materials to specified sizes for installation, using power saws, tile cutters, hydraulic tools•Modifies material moving, mixing, grouting, grinding, polishing, to material requirements.•Provides assistance in the preparation, installation, repair, or rebuilding of stone, brick, or other surfaces.•Transports materials, tools, or machines to installation sites, manually or using conveyance equipment.•Locates and supplies materials to masons for installation, following drawings or numbered sequences.•Arranges or stores materials, machines, tools, or equipment.•Cleans installation surfaces, equipment, tools, work sites/storage areas, and polishing machines.•Moves or positions materials such as cement slabs, using cranes, hoists, or dollies.•Clean and maintains tools and vehicles
Purpose
Lay and bind building materials, such as brick, stone, concrete block, and block, with mortar and other substances to construct or repair walls, partitions, arches, and other structures.
Minimum Requirements
<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Work at heights above 8 feet on structures such as ladders, poles, scaffolding, and catwalks•Maintaining a body position that prevents falling when in an unstable position•Seeing clearly at a distance and up close•Exerting oneself physically over long periods of time without getting out of breath•Lifting, pushing, pulling, or carrying objects•Bending, stretching, twisting, or reaching•Desire to learn and receive constructive feedback

I have reviewed this job description and understand these are the tasks I will be expected to perform.

Employee Signature

Date